CAN'T DO WITHOUT A PAPER. What, do without a paper? no, Pre tried it to my sorrow So, to subscribe for one Pil go, Nor walt until to-morrow. Should lovers drown or hang themselves, Cut other foolish caper, I never get to hear of it-

I do not take the pape . Why, there's my neighbor, Jotham Stout, He always hears the news, And having news to talk about He never gets the blues. While others yawn in ennui, His mind is light as vapor; The cause is plain to half an eye-He always takes the paper.

While neighbor Stout hears all the news, And knows each current price, And always minds his P's and Q's, By taking good advice. I cannot tell the price of calves, Or poultry, coffee, tape, or Any kind of merhandise-Because I take no paper.

Though I have studies which require Much time and mental labor, Yet I can spare a little time, As well as Stout, my neighbor. Though time be precious, I can use A longer midnight taper, And thus take time to read the news-Therefore I'll take a paper.

> LOVE. It is not in the Mountains, Nor the palaces of pride, That love will fold his wings up, And rejoicingly abide; But in meek and humble natures His home is ever found. And the lark that sings in heaven Builds his nest upon the ground.

Missouri Steam Planing Mill. Builders Warerooms-Sash, Door and Blind Factory-Mill and Lumber Yard,

Corner of Walnut & 9th streets, St. Louis. WE have erected a LARGE STEAM MILL for the purpose of manufacturing and keeping on hand an assortment of doors, sash, blinds, mantels, base, shelvings, for stores, palings for fences, weatherboarding, flooring, and every kind of carpenter work suitable for steamboats and buildings. Boards and planks planed on both sides to any thickness required. Resplit-ting, ripping, scroll and circular sawing, plow-ing, relating; also mouldings of very variety of pattern prepared at short notice.

Being practical builders, employing none but experienced workmen, we are prepared to fur-nish work as low as any establishment in the West. Our work is all made of seasoned lumber, and warranted equal to that made by hand-Considering the low rates of freight, carpen-ters and others about to erect buildings on the lines of railroad running into St. Louis, or on the Missouri or Mississippi rivers, will find it to their interest to purchase all their work and lumber from us. We have a printed bill of prices which we will send to persons who may wish one. All orders will receive prompt attention. Terms-Cash. SAWYER & McILVAIN. sep 15

In the commencement of our undertaking as public Journalists, we are not unmindful of the many responsibilities we are assuming, and every exertion will be made on our part to acquit our selves to the satisfaction of our patrons, and to make our Paper one of the leading Journals of the South-west.

In us, the Farmer and Mechanic will find ar In us, the Farmer and Mechanic will find ar deat supporters of their best interests, and the working-man of every avocation and pursuit, may rely on our willing and cheerful aevocacy and aid; the Pioneer and Squatter upon uncoupied Public Lands, may look to us as to long-tried frends, for we are of them, and shall watch with a jealous eye over all their dearly bought rights and hard earned privileges.

With Politics we do not expect to meddle; but the public have a right to know of our antecedents.

With Politics we do not expect to meddle; but the public have a right to know of our antecedents, as well as to learn our present position. We have been old-line National Whigs of the Clay and Webster school, and we have yet to learn that these great Oracles of the Whig party were mistaken in their policy, or advocated any are wise and liberal principles; but as questions but to be acted upon of more immediate and vital im-portance to us and to the country than adher-ence to abstract Whig or Democratic doctrines, we cheerfully forego our former predilections we cheerfully forego our former predilections for party, and define our position as follows: The present Administration has won upon our confidence by many of its leading measures, and we shall yield it our cheerful and humble support in such a policy as shall conduce to the general good. The location is about central between the Missouri and Kansas rivers, and with the best natural roads in the west leading to it. It is about central to a country that is susceptible of a large and dense population, and everything points to this place as the centre of a county that will be formed, making it of necessity a county seat. There is an abundance of lime stone rock, inexhaustible veins of stone coal in the immediate vicinity, which have been tested, and proved to be good. Added to all these there is good timber, good soil, and good water adjoining the ber, good soil, and good water adjoining the town. There are several fine springs of clear running water on and adjoining the town tract, and but a few miles west is where the old Del-aware Mills were established, said to be an ex-
